For Immediate Release

Effective immediately and until further notice, Assumption Parish has issued a "Burn Ban" for the entire parish.

Effective Friday, May 27, 2011, the no wake zones have been lifted for the Lake Verret and Magzille areas of Assumption Parish. Belle River's no wake zone near homes and camps will stay in effect until further notice.

If circumstances warrant, due to rising water, no wake zones will be put back into effect to protect the homes, camps and businesses in the Lake Verret area and the burn ban may be lifted.

For further information, contact the Assumption Parish Office of Homeland Security and Emergency Preparedness at 985-369-7386. You may also view the parish's website at www.assumptionla.com.
